When I was young, and they packed me off to school
G
and they taught me how

D Asus4 Asus2 A A
not to play the game.

I didn't mind if they groomed me for success, (eh, heh)
Or if they said that I was just a fool.
(Strum freely)
So I left there in the morning with their god tucked underneath my arm --

Their half-assed smiles and the book of rules.

And I asked this God a question and by way of firm reply, He said –
“I’m not the kind you have to wind up on Sundays.”
So to my old headmaster (and, to anyone who cares):
Before I’m through I’d like to say my prayers –

(Drums in)
I don't believe you; you had the whole damn thing all wrong --

He's not the kind you have to wind up on Sundays.

I don't believe you; you had the whole damn thing all wrong --
Well you can excommunicate me on my way to Sunday school and have all the bishops harmonize these lines.

(Rock Section) 140 bpm

(Bm section again, second rock section)
Guitar Solo over rhythm groove x 4

\[ \text{G A D A Bm} \]

Well you can excommunicate me on my way to Sunday school and have

\[ \text{G A B} \]

all the bishops harmonize these lines.

So to my old headmaster (and to anyone who cares)

Before I'm through I'd like to say my prayers –

(skip to:)

\[ \text{G A D A Bm} \]

Well you can excommunicate me on my way to Sunday school

\[ \text{G A B} \]

And have all the bishops harmonize these lines.

Guitar only: single-strum chords

I don't believe you, you had the whole damn thing all wrong --

He's not the kind you have to wind up on

Sundays. (Ehh)
